

Menergy, LLC Posting: Therapist - Independent Contractor
Hours: Part-time - 2-20 hours per week

Who We Are

Menergy, LLC is a therapy-based treatment program for abusive men and women. Our staff is composed of licensed masters and PhD level clinicians who have extensive training and experience working with abusive partners. We are passionate about supporting relationships and families so that they are safe and nurturing for all men, women and children.

What We Do

- Provide intensive evaluations of clients wishing to change their patterns of abusive behavior
- Offer beginner level groups designed to significantly alter the behavior and attitudes of abusive men
- Run advanced level groups for men who have stopped the most obvious abusive behavior and are now ready to look at more nuanced and ingrained habits of dominance and avoidance in their relationships.
- Provide ongoing treatment for clients with complicated histories of trauma.
- Design and run professional development training for providers who wish to more competently interact with abusive clients and patients
- Engage with systems to create accountable responses to intimate partner violence in the community.

Our Ideal Candidate

We are looking for someone who is:

- a seasoned clinician with experience working in the fields of violence prevention, domestic violence, or addiction.
- Thoughtful about our work being individual and clinical but also political and systemic and who can consider intimate partner violence (IPV) through a feminist framework and think about race and class in a nuanced way.
- Models the message, being committed to healthy relationships in their personal and professional lives.
- Committed to ongoing education and training
- Licensed at the highest level
- Bilingual - Spanish/English preferred but not required
- An excellent verbal and written communicator who can connect comfortably with clients and professionals from a variety of backgrounds.
- Detail-oriented, organized, and able to work independently.
- Able to set and maintain warm and careful limits.

Responsibilities

This position consists of:

- Running beginner and advanced level treatment groups for abusive partners,
- Conducting in-depth evaluations of new clients.
- Keeping records related to client contact and writing reports for referring institutions.
- Interfacing with representatives from referring institutions, communicating with clinical staff and taking thorough notes on all contacts.
- Participating as a member of the clinical team in case presentations and reviews and attending individual supervision with clinical director.

Benefits of working at Menergy

Be part of team working to provide the best services to clients. Menergy staff work flexible hours and benefit from free ongoing supervision with an LCSW.
